ZAMYŚLENIE NAD EWANGELIĄ

W czytaniach Ewangelii z ubiegłej niedzieli słyszeliśmy Jezusa zwracającego się do Jego uczniów w słynnym Kazaniu na Górze. Każde z wymienionych w tym kazaniu błogosławieństw zaprasza nas do przeżywania naszego życia w prawości i w oparciu na głębokiej wierze i zaufaniu Bogu. Taka postawa, zapewnia nas Jezus, obdarzy nas szczęściem i pokojem.

Dzisiejszy urywek Ewangelii usytuowany jest natychmiast po Kazaniu na Górze i stanowi niejako kontynuację tematów podjętych w Błogosławieństwach. W dzisiejszym czytaniu Jezus uczy nas jak być Jego naśladowcami. Wyjaśniając zadania uczniów posługuje się krótkimi przypowieściami, które (w zależności od tego, jaką wiedzę posiadamy na temat starożytnej symboliki) mogą, lub nie, być trudne do zrozumienia. Soli, w czasach Jezusa, przypisywano trzy szczególne cechy: czystość, ochrona przeciwko korupcji (zniszczeniu) oraz jako wzmacniacz podnoszący smak. Światło natomiast było i nadal jest postrzegane jako uniwersalny obraz wyrażający dobroć. Zadaniem obydwu elementów jest przeobrażenie stanu czegoś na lepsze. Sól nadaje smak, zmieniając na przykład mdłe jedzenie w smaczne pożywienie natomiast światło rozprasza ciemność i pozwala nam wyraźnie zobaczyć nasze środowisko, zapobiegając w ten sposób wykonywaniu chaotycznych czy ryzykownych ruchów.

Warto zauważyć, że w dzisiejszym fragmencie Jezus nie mówi uczniom, że mają stać się solą ziemi i światłością świata. Mówi im, że są solą ziemi, że są światłem świata. Co to znaczy? Jezus rozpoczyna nauczanie od stwierdzenia, że uczniowie są dobrymi ludźmi, że posiadają zdolność do wzmocnienia piękna naszego świata; posiadają już w sobie zdolność bycia światłem dla kogoś kto pogrążony jest w ciemności. Natychmiast jednak, już w następnym zdaniu Jezus ostrzega przykładem zwiertzałej soli, że zdolności te, jeśli zostaną zignorowane to nieuchronnie ulegną szybkiemu wyniszczeniu, tworząc w efekcie z uczniów Jezusa takich mdłych, nijakich - z nazwy tylko - Chrześcijan.

Co więc powinniśmy czynić by nie stać się elementem zdatnym tylko do wyrzucenia? Jak uniknąć znalezienia się w tak fatalnym stanie? Wróćmy do dzisiejszego pierwszego czytania z księgi proroka Izajasza (Iz 58, 7-10) i zobaczmy czy jest tam dla nas jakaś rada. Prorok, na rozkaz Boga, mówi:

"dziel swój chleb z głodnym, wprowadź w dom biednych tułaczy, nagiego przyodziej, nie odwracaj się od współziomka, usuń jarzmo, nie groź palcem i przestań wygłaszać fałszywe oskarżenia i złośliwe mowy, nakarm duszę przygnębioną.... – wtedy to zabłyśnie twe światło..." A więc - jest sposób.

Bo tylko wtedy, gdy podejmiemy wyzwania zawarte w Błogosławieństwach, gdy z odwagą stawimy czoła uciskom, gdy zdecydujemy się obdarzać miłosierdziem, gdy w pełni i z zaufaniem powierzmy się naszemu Bogu – wtedy to zachowamy cechy soli i będziemy światłem rozpraszającym ciemność. Tylko wtedy możemy okazać się żywym, praktycznym, może nawet na tyle atrakcyjnym przykładem chrześcijańskich wartości, że zdolnym do pociągnięcia także innych do pójścia za Chrystusem.

Z pozdrowieniem w Chrystusie, Krystyna Maciorowski

GOSPEL REFLECTION

In the Gospel Reading of last Sunday we heard Jesus addressing His disciples with the famous Sermon on the Mount, the Beatitudes. Each of the Beatitudes invites us to live our lives with faith and integrity, promising in turn, peace and happiness.

Today's Gospel passage follows immediately that sermon and is, so to speak, a continuation of the Beatitudes' theme. Jesus instructs us on how to be His followers. He uses a couple of short parables that (depending on how knowledgeable we are with ancient symbolism) may or may not be difficult to discern. Salt in the time of Jesus was connected with three special qualities: purity, preservation from corruption, and giving flavor. Light, of course, was and still is a universal image of goodness. Both agents provide change for the better. Salt gives flavor, changing bland food into tasty sustenance and light dispels darkness enabling us to have a clear visibility of our environment, thus preventing chaotic and risky movements.

It is worth noting that in today's passage Jesus is not telling the disciples they have to become the salt of the earth or the light of the world. He tells them they are the salt of the earth, as well as the light of the world. What does that mean? Jesus starts his instruction by telling His disciples that they are a good people, that they already have in themselves the ability to intensify the beauty of the world; they possess the ability to be a light to someone in need. However, in the next sentence He utters a warning that this can quickly vanish if the disciples fail to act upon these good qualities. They merely will become bland, lifeless – in name only - Christians.

How can we prevent this sorry state of insipidness from befalling us? Let's go back to the First Reading from the prophet Isaiah who says: "share your bread with the hungry, shelter the oppressed and the homeless, clothe the naked, do not turn your back on your own, remove from your midst oppression, false accusation and malicious speech...then your light will shine." That is how! For it is only when we answer Jesus' advice to be courageous when oppressed, when we decide to be merciful and poor in spirit, that is when we are allowing our light to shine. Only then we are able to keep the saltiness. Only then we can become a living, practical example of Christian values. Who knows, as such, we can even inspire someone to become a follower of Christ as well.

Have a blessed week! Krystyna Maciorowski

BIBLE STUDY— on the book of Matthew, which is the Gospel that is read during the 2017 church year continues this week. Morning sessions, led by Krystyna Maciorowski are on Tuesdays at 9: 45am and will conclude on Tuesday, February 14, 2017. Evening sessions, led by Deacon Tony, start on January 31st at 7pm and conclude on February 21, 2017. Both, the morning and evening sessions will be of the same content, both will be in English, though Polish parishioners are welcome. Krystyna will cover the background and history of Matthew's Gospel, which will make it easier to appreciate and understand the gospel each Sunday. The study will continue on Tuesdays for four weeks and could continue after Lent with a more in depth study of Matthew using Jeff Cavin's video series. Make a resolution to grow your faith in 2017 by attending the series.

Friends and neighbors are welcome!

St. Thomas Becket^k Parish
Father Chris Kulig
1321 Burning Bush Ln.
Mt. Prospect, IL 60056

Dear Fr. Kulig,

Thank you for St. Thomas' donation of 250 pounds of food items for the food pantry at the Catholic Charities office in Des Plaines. Your parish's generosity helps us help families in need.

An estimated 800,000 people in Cook County live in "food insecure" households, meaning they may not know how they're going to put dinner on the table tonight, or buy groceries next week. Tens of thousands of those people live in the northwest suburbs, where as many as 1 in 8 families are food insecure.

That's why the food pantry at our Northwest Regional office is so important. We provide canned and dry goods, fresh fruit and vegetables, meat, bread, eggs and dairy products to nearly 5,500 households with 20,000 residents every year. Each household gets a four-day supply of food, meaning we distribute nearly 240,000 meals per year. We couldn't do it without the support of donors like you.

Founded in 1917, Catholic Charities helps more than 1 million people a year from all denominations. We operate 150 programs at 164 sites offering food, clothing, shelter, and a comprehensive network of services. We also are strong stewards of funding, with 92 cents of every dollar we raise going directly to programs.

Thank you again for your donation. With your help, we can fight hunger in our communities.

Regards,

Michael J. Waters

Thank you, St. Thomas Becket!

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

CATHOLIC TRADITIONS EXPLAINED

Question:

What is holy water and how do I explain the reason that it is placed at the entrances of churches to my non-Catholic friends?

Answer:

Holy water is a sacramental; a reminder of the life of the church expressed and celebrated through the sacraments. By blessing ourselves with holy water as we enter the church, we are reminded of our own baptism and our call to conversion. Much as we are baptized and then journey through life, we bless ourselves and move through the church, symbolizing again the guiding presence of the Lord, which comes to us through baptism. We especially use holy water during Easter when the priest sprinkles the people. It serves to remind us that we are indeed on a journey of faith that makes us one with Christ. So blessing ourselves not only reminds us that we are baptized into a community of faith, but also helps us renew our own baptismal promises to reject sin and to believe in God. It is the heart of Christian belief to turn from sin and toward God. Holy water and baptism make it a visible sign for all of us to follow.
