SPECIAL ARCHDIOCESAN AND PARISH AWARDS

On Sunday, November 13th at the 9am Mass, we will recognize John and Sarah Wysocki as the recipients of the 2016 CHRISTIFIDELES AWARD. John and Sarah received this award from Archbishop Cupich at the Holy Name Cathedral on Sunday, October 23rd along with recipients from all over the archdiocese. The CHRISTIFIDELES AWARD is given to Catholic laypersons who have demonstrated by participation in parish life, the personal and ministerial renewal called for by the Papal Exhortation, Christifideles laici. Those presented the award have exemplified leadership and a dedication in serving the church through a variety of ministries. John is a Eucharistic Minister, member of the Spiritual Life committee and a Men's Club member. Sarah is a Lector, flutist, (usher, if needed). She has also been a cantor, Spiritual Life committee and a choir member, a catechist at CCD and Children's Liturgy of the Word, started playgroup, ran the kids games at picnic, and was a membership VP of the Women's Guild. John and Sarah dedicate their talents and time in serving our community of faith. They are faithful witnesses to the work of the Holy Spirit through their presence and commitment.

Father Wachowski was the founding pastor of St. Thomas Becket Parish and is a model for us of dedicated service and a spirit of selfless giving. This year, we will present the REV. FRANK WACHOWSKI AWARD to Patricia Jason who has demonstrated that generous spirit. Patricia is one of the founding parishioners, was at the very first St. Thomas Becket Mass at Maryville with Fr. Frank Wachowski. She has been on the first Woman's Guild board as a Recording Secretary and still is a very active member. She has taught 2nd grade religion class for about 10 years, was a secretary in the front office for both Fr. Mollan and Fr. Roller. Pat is a Minister of Care for the last 25 years, a member of the Bereavement Ministry ever since it began and is a member of the Spiritual Life Committee.

The JUBILATE SERVITE AWARD (Serve God with Gladness!) will be presented to the Krol family: Grzegorz, Marlena, Kamila, and Sebastian for their joyful service to the parish. Grzegorz and Sebastian are both Ushers. Sebastian is the youngest head Usher we have ever had! He has been an Altar Server for many, many years. Marlena serves the parish on the Finance Committee, Kamila is a Lector and was involved in the Youth Ministry. Grzegorz, Marlena, and Kamila have also just become our newest, most needed, Eucharistic Ministers.

Congratulations to all!

We thank them for their many years of dedicated and generous service.

Thanksgiving is a time for being grateful for the gifts God has given us and for showing our thanks by helping to ensure that those who have less than we do can also enjoy a warm Thanksgiving dinner. We will collect food for the poor during our Thanksgiving Day Mass. All collected donations will be shared with the local branch of Catholic Charities. We hope that everyone who attends will come with a bag of food. If you cannot spare a bag this year, at least come with a few cans or boxes of non-perishable food. And if you cannot attend the Thanksgiving Day Mass, you can bring the food to the rectory anytime during Thanksgiving week.

We will see that the collected food gets to those who are most in need. A monetary collection will also be taken on November 24th for the Open Door Ministry working in our parish. God Bless You.

The Open Door Commission.

Święto Dziękczynienia to czas wdzięczności za wszystkie dary jakimi nas Bóg obdarzył i okazania tej wdzięczności przez upewnienie się, że ci, którzy posiadają mniej, będą mogli w tym dniu cieszyć się ciepłym obiadem. W dniu Dziękczynienia, 24-go listopada, będziemy mieć zbiórkę żywności dla ubogich. Wszystkie zebrane donacje będą oddane dla Catholic Charities (Katolicka Harytatywna Organizacja). Mamy nadzieję, że każdy kto będzie uczestniczył w tej Mszy Św. przyniesie ze sobą reklamówkę żywności, lub chociażby jeden karton lub puszkę. Jeżeli ktoś nie może uczestniczyć we Mszy Św. w tym dniu, żywność można dostarczyć do biura parafialnego w każdym dniu tego tygodnia. Zapewniamy, że wszystkie te dary dotrą do tych, którzy najbardziej ich potrzebują. W Dzień Dziękczynienia będzie również zebrana kolekta, która zostanie przeznaczona na potrzeby Komisji Otwartych Drzwi pracującej w naszej parafii. Bóg Zapłać.

REFLECTION ON THE GOSPEL

As we approach the end of the liturgical year the Sunday Scripture readings from the Gospel of Luke of recent weeks invite us to reflect on our attitudes toward the final end of things including our own lives. Today's reading begins with a scene describing the disciples marveling over the magnificence and splendor of the temple. The Temple of Jerusalem was the center of Jewish worship, 'the soul of the Jewish faith' if you will. It was a place where God had been dwelling. At the time of Jesus the structure, which had been undergoing a complete renovation for a few last decades, was immense, towering majestically over the city. It was one of the wonders of the world.

Jesus, in response to the disciples' admiration over the magnificence of the temple, delivers a prophecy concerning the future fate of the temple. He says the time is coming that this seemingly indestructible structure will lie in ruins. Not a single stone will stand. Thirty-seven years later, the prophecy will be fulfilled when, in response to the emergence of the Jewish revolt, the Romans will besiege Jerusalem and utterly destroy the city and the temple. The remainder of the reading of today's Gospel passage is of an apocalyptic nature and composed of highly symbolic language that is difficult to interpret unambiguously. Jesus is talking here about experiencing persecution by Christians of all times, about the end of the world as well as about the inevitable end of life of each and every one of us.

Let us go, then, back to the topic of the temple destruction for upon deeper consideration of this subject we can draw a valuable lesson for ourselves. Yes, it is certainly true that the external elements of the temple building were so beautiful and impressive as to arouse a common admiration. Jesus, however, when looking at the temple looks deeper, way beyond the glitter and gold. He is not impressed by the external worldly appearance of the temple no matter how impressive it looks. Let us remember that this Jesus, the very Son of God, will be rejected and betrayed and condemned to death 'by this' awesome, awe-struck generating temple.

The question for us is this: how can we prevent ourselves from being a temple that is only externally beautiful? Do we need to look into our hearts to check whether our worship is only lip service or are we serious followers of Jesus? Jesus warns us not to let ourselves be duped by false messiahs. He Himself said that He is the way, the truth, and the life (Jn14:6). Strengthened by the words from the prophet Malachi directed at those who sincerely revere God, 'But for you who fear my name, there will arise the sun of justice with its healing rays' - let us remain faithful to Jesus the Christ.

ZAMYŚLENIE NAD EWANGELIĄ

W miarę jak zbliżamy się do końca liturgicznego roku, niedzielne czytania biblijne ostatnich tygodni zapraszają nas do refleksji dotyczącej przemijania – przemijania rzeczy, instytucji, a także naszego własnego życia. Dzisiejsze czytanie rozpoczyna się sceną opisującą zachwyt uczniów nad wspaniałością i splendorem świątyni. Świątynia jerozolimska była centrum kultu żydowskiego, niejako 'duszą żydowskiej wiary'. To tutaj właśnie przebywał ich Bóg. W czasach Jezusa budowla świątyni, gruntownie przebudowywana i odnawiana przez kilka ostatnich dziesięcioleci, była imponująco olbrzymia i masywna, majestatycznie górując nad miastem. Była jednym z cudów ówczesnego świata. Zachwycanie się przez uczniów zewnętrznym pięknem budowli sprowokowało Jezusa do wygłoszenia przepowiedni dotyczącej przyszłego losu świątyni. Ten pozornie niezniszczalny obiekt ich zachwytu wkrótce legnie w gruzach, ani jeden kamień się nie ostoi. Trzydzieści kilka lat później przepowiednia spełni się, gdy w odpowiedzi na powstanie żydowskie Rzymianie dokonają oblężenia Jerozolimę zakończonych całkowitym zniszczeniem miasta i świątyni. Pozostała część czytania z dzisiejszego fragmentu Ewangelii posiada apokaliptyczny charakter i zawiera wysoce symboliczny język często trudny lub wręcz niemożliwy do jednoznacznego zinterpretowania. Jezus mówi tu o doświadczaniu prześladowań przez chrześcijan wszystkich czasów, o końcu świata, a także o nieuchronnym zakończeniu własnego życia każdego z nas. Wróćmy więc do tematu zniszczenia świątyni, bo po głębszym rozważeniu tego tematu możemy wyciągnąć dla siebie pewną lekcję.

Tak, to prawda, że zewnętrzne elementy, struktura i w ogóle cała budowla świątyni jerozolimskiej była tak piękna, okazała i imponująca, że wzbudzała powszechny zachwyt. Pamiętajmy jednak, że ten Jezus, Syn Boga samego, został 'przez tą' przepiękną świątynię odrzucony, zdradzony i w końcu wydany na śmierć. W świetle tego powstaje więc dla nas takie oto pytanie: jak możemy uchronić się od bycia świątynią tylko piękną na zewnątrz? Może należałoby sprawdzić głębię naszych serc, aby zobaczyć czy jesteśmy autentycznymi wyznawcami Jezusa czy też nasza wiara to tylko puste frazesy? Jezus ostrzega nas, abyśmy nie dali się zwieść fałszywym mesjaszom. On Sam powiedział nam, że to właśnie On jest drogą, prawdą i życiem (J14,6). Umocnieni słowami proroka Malachiasza skierowanymi do tych, którzy szczerze czczą Boga - 'A dla was, czczących moje imię, wszędzie słońce sprawiedliwości i uzdrowienie w jego promieniach' - pozostajmy wierni Jezusowi Chrystusowi.
