HOLIDAY THANKS TO ALL

Today we celebrate the Baptism of the Lord—the official end of the Christmas season. It is the perfect time to thank the many people who helped make the Christmas season so wonderful in our parish.

Many thanks to the parish staff and all liturgical ministers for sharing your faith, time, and efforts to make our worship a holy offering. Lectors, Eucharistic ministers, ushers, and servers, you are truly a blessing to our parish. I would like to thank our music directors, all the cantors, instrumentalists, and choirs. Also, sincere thanks to all those who decorated our church for Christmas. I received many complements on how beautiful and inviting our worship space looked and felt.

I would like to add a special thank you to all the parishioners for your generosity during our Christmas collection. For us to stay fiscally sound, I ask you if you can, to please share your generosity with the parish via the regular Sunday collection or the monthly religious education and Catholic school support collection. For a greater convenience, we now offer a safe on-line giving option that can be accessed anytime by visiting our website at: www.stthomasbecketmp.org and clicking on the GIVE CENTRAL option. God's blessings ~ Fr. Chris

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Jesus stood in line with everyone else and was baptized. There is something incredibly humbling about how this must have played out. Then, God did something truly awesome and inspiring. Through a very gentle and simple action he let the world know about the special relationship He shares with Jesus. That's exactly what is so incredible about our baptisms as well! Through those holy waters God announces to the world the special place we also occupy in His heart. We no longer have to wonder about the purpose of our lives or struggle to find our way. We do not need to fumble around, tripping over ourselves and wondering why we are even here. The answer has been given. All we have to do is live out the vocation we have received, to live the Gospel in fidelity to our Creator. There is nothing to fear and worry has no place. Standing in line with other sinners, we have our anchor and God is very pleased. ©Lpi

A Meditation on Our Baptisms

Reading: The Baptism of Jesus:

Then Jesus came from Galilee to John at the Jordan to be baptized by him. John tried to prevent him, saying, "I need to be baptized by you, and yet you are coming to me?" Jesus said to him in reply, "Allow it now, for thus it is fitting for us to fulfill all righteousness." Then he allowed him. After Jesus was baptized, he came up from the water and behold, the heavens were opened [for him], and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove [and] coming upon him. And a voice came from the heavens, saying, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased."

Guided Meditation: My Baptism

Most of us experienced our baptism as infants. We have no memory of it ourselves and can only ask our parents to recount the experience for us. Nevertheless, imagine if you were there at your own baptism.

What would you have seen and heard?

Who do you think would have been there?

What kinds of expressions would they have on their faces?

What do you think they were feeling or thinking at that moment?

Now consider the Baptism of Jesus in relation to your own baptism.

In baptism, we become like Christ, God's sons and daughters.

Picture the priest pouring water over your infant head or dunking you in the baptismal font.

Then at that moment, look up and imagine these words being proclaimed in silence,

"This is my beloved [son/daughter] with whom I am well pleased."

Now, imagine these words being said to you, today, right now. God speaks directly and privately to you:

"You are my beloved child with whom I am well pleased."

Silently, respond to him. What would you say if you heard these words from God right now?

Closing Prayer

Close with an "Our Father," but before you begin reminding the students of the words that they are saying. They are God's children. God is our Father. When we pray the Lord's Prayer, we are expressing our relationship with God as our loving Father.

Nothing gets our students (especially younger kids) more excited in the RE classroom than practicing baptism on a doll. The kids might not understand the Church's teaching about the Sacrament of Baptism, but they do love baptizing a doll. Maybe it is because this is the only sacrament that anyone can administrate in case of emergency by pouring water over the head of the recipient and pronouncing the baptismal formula "I baptize you in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit" and the students want to try it. Or maybe it is because the baptism is always a joyful and exciting event. In this sacrament, we are becoming a son or a daughter of God forever. God is telling us the same words spoken to Jesus today: "You are my beloved child; with you, I am well pleased." In this sacrament, we receive our identity as a child of God, and it is an occasion to celebrate. Through baptism, we are incorporated into the Body of Christ—the Church (CCC, 1267-1270). In baptism, we are united with all baptized Christians, even those who may not be Catholic (CCC, 1271). Baptism seals Christians with the indelible spiritual mark or character of belonging to Christ. It cannot be erased, and baptism cannot be repeated. We are Christ's forever (CCC, 1272-1274). All sins are forgiven in this sacrament, original sin and personal sins, and the punishment for sins (CCC, 1263-1264). Many Christians in the Early Church were postponing their baptism until their deathbed, so they can go straight to heaven after death because of this effect of baptism. Through baptism, we become participants in God's life. On this Sunday of the Baptism of the Lord, let us remember that God loves us, and He is pleased with us.

Nic bardziej nie cieszy naszych uczniów (szczególnie młodsze dzieci) na klasie religii niż ćwiczenie chrztu św na lalce. Dzieci mogą nie rozumieć nauczania Kościoła o sakramencie chrztu św, ale lubią praktykowanie chrztu na lalce. Może dlatego, że jest to jedyny sakrament, który każdy może udzielić w razie nagłej potrzeby, wylewając wodę nad głowę osoby i wypowiadając formułę chrztu: "Ja ciebie chrzczę w imię Ojca i Syna i Ducha Świętego" i dzieci chcą spróbować. A może dlatego, że chrzest św jest zawsze radosnym i ekscytującym wydarzeniem. W tym sakramencie stajemy się synem lub córką Pana Boga na zawsze. Pan Bóg mówi nam te same słowa, które wypowiedział dzisiaj do Jezusa: "Ty jesteś moim umiłowanym dzieckiem; w tobie mam upodobanie". W sakramencie chrztu św., otrzymujemy naszą tożsamość jako dziecko Boga i to jest okazja do świętowania. Przez chrzest jesteśmy włączeni w Ciało Chrystusa—Kościół (KKK, 1267-1270). W chrzcie jesteśmy zjednoczeni ze wszystkimi ochrzczoneymi chrześcijanami, nawet tymi, którzy nie są katolikami (KKK, 1271). Chrzest pieczętuje chrześcijan nieodłącznym znakiem przynależności do Chrystusa. Nie można go usunąć, a chrztu nie można powtórzyć.

Należymy do Chrystusem już na zawsze (KKK, 1272-1274). Wszystkie grzechy są odpuszczone w tym sakramencie, grzech pierworodny i grzechy osobiste, i kara za grzechy (KKK, 1263-1264). Wielu Chrześcijan we wczesnym Kościele odkładało swój chrzest aż do łoża śmierci, aby po śmierci mogli pójść prosto do nieba z powodu tego oczyszczającego efektu chrztu św. Przez chrzest św stajemy się uczestnikami życia Bożego. W tę Niedzielę Chrztu Pańskiego pamiętajmy o tym, że Bóg nas kocha i jest z nas zadowolony.

Prospect IL 60056

Dear Ms. Mika and Members of St. Thomas Becket Catholic Church,

On behalf of Military Outreach USA, please accept our sincere appreciation for your generous donation of a $500 check and $500 in Target and Walmart gift cards during December 2021. These gifts will honor local Veterans who are transitioning from homelessness into housing.

We appreciate your heart for our nation's heroes and our mission to honor them. Your support makes a difference in many lives!

For many of these Veterans, this is their first time living independently with household items of their own, and it is a source of pride and encouragement for them. They have worked hard to qualify for this program and are truly grateful for the hands-up you have given them to successfully meet this responsibility.

The support and encouragement we receive from donors such as you have enabled Military Outreach USA to serve, free of charge, over 49,000 of our military, Veterans and their families. Under our Veterans Exiting Homelessness Program, we have provided 2,167 bed sets and $1,331,141 worth of move-in-essential household items to Veterans in transition.

Military Outreach USA is a 501(c)(3) organization as determined by the IRS; our tax ID is 27- 5136516. Your contribution is fully deductible to the extent of the law as goods or services were not received in exchange for your gift.

Again, thank you for your generosity and your concern for our Veterans. Our nation's heroes will not be forgotten.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

St. Hilary of Poitiers | January 13

Born a pagan, St. Hilary (c. 315 – c. 367) studied philosophy and the meaning of life, eventually making his way through the bible. He became a convert and was appointed bishop of Poitiers in 353. Sometimes referred to as the Hammer of the Arians, St. Hilary defended the Nicene Creed against a popular heresy, Arianism. He was exiled to Phrygia for opposing Roman emperor Constantius II, who preferred the heresy which denies Christ’s divinity. From Phrygia St. Hilary fought with his pen, zealously writing against the heresy.

Eventually he was allowed to return to Poitiers, but did so by a circuitous route, preaching against Arianism all the way. St. Hilary was likely the first writer of hymns in the West, his writings on the Trinity, Psalms and Gospel of Matthew survive today. St. Hilary was created Doctor of the Church, a title given to those who provided important contributions to theology and doctrine, in 1851 by Pope Pius IX.
