LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

We become a welcoming person when we can step aside from our own needs and desires to create space for someone else. Welcoming involves a quality of listening and presence that communicates to another person that what they are sharing and who they are have importance. When we shift attention and focus from ourselves and direct it toward someone else, positive things can happen. When someone knows that their story matters, it can be life changing and life-giving. Hospitality brings forth life and celebrates relationships. Whether we are actively tending to the business of serving the needs of others or opening ourselves to listening to their story, devotion and attentiveness are friends of love. Becoming anxious and preoccupied with one's personal agenda leaves no room for the creative, nurturing and spontaneous power of God's love. ©Lpi

CATHOLIC TRIVIA – Who is the patron saint of altar servers?

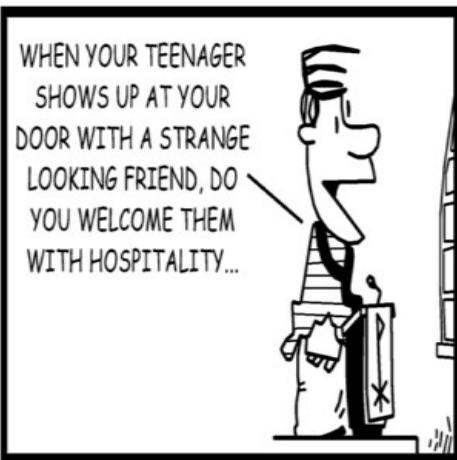

Answer: Saint John Berchmans

ŻYĆ LITURGIĄ - INSPIRACJA NA TYDZIEŃ

Stajemy się osobami gościnnymi, kiedy potrafimy wyjść poza własne potrzeby i pragnienia, aby stworzyć miejsce dla kogoś innego. Gościnność wiąże się z jakością słuchania i obecności, która komunikuje drugiej osobie, że to, czym się dzieli i kim jest, ma znaczenie. Kiedy odsuwamy uwagę i skupienie od siebie i kierujemy je na kogoś innego, mogą wydarzyć się pozytywne rzeczy. Kiedy ktoś wie, że jego historia ma znaczenie, może to zmienić jego życie i dać życie. Gościnność rodzi życie i celebrytuje relacje. Niezależnie od tego, czy aktywnie zajmujemy się sprawami związanymi z zaspokajaniem potrzeb innych, czy też otwieramy się na słuchanie ich historii, oddanie i uważność są przyjaciółmi miłości. Stawanie się niespokojnym i zajętym swoimi osobistymi sprawami nie pozostawia miejsca na twórczą, pielęgnującą i spontaniczną moc Bożej miłości.

KATOLICKIE CIEKAWOSTKI - Kto jest patronem ministrantów?

Odpowiedź: Święty Jan Berchmans

Statement of the Archdiocese of Chicago on the Council of Religious Leaders of Metropolitan Chicago statement against anti-Catholic bigotry

BY CHICAGO CATHOLIC STAFF

WEDNESDAY, JULY 6, 2022

Last week the Council of Religious Leaders of Metropolitan Chicago, an interreligious community of leaders from diverse faith traditions, released an important statement in response to the rise of anti-Catholic caricatures and inflammatory rhetoric that has accompanied the U.S. Supreme Court's decision in Dobbs v. Jackson Women's Health Organization, which overturned Roe v. Wade. That such a strong statement came from this influential group of faith leaders is significant. In addition to being a forum for various faith traditions to gather for prayer, mutual exchange and dialogue, the council is committed to providing support when any religious community suffers prejudice or discrimination, and to acting on behalf of the common good. The Archdiocese of Chicago gratefully acknowledged the council's support in the following statement, released June 30. — Cardinal Cupich

The Archdiocese of Chicago welcomes the statement of support from the Council of Religious Leaders of Metropolitan Chicago in light of recent anti-Catholic caricatures and attacks following the U.S. Supreme Court's decision in Dobbs v. Jackson Women's Health Organization. Indeed, many religious leaders have shared with us their distress that such offensive depictions of Catholics have been given legitimacy by a local elected official.

On Friday, June 24, Illinois State Senator Sara Feigenholtz posted on her personal Facebook page an image of a Catholic pope or bishop pointing a gun at the head of a pregnant Statue of Liberty. The senator removed the posting, noting in a statement in the media that she did so when she "later learned it offended people of faith." And while she said she was sorry and meant no ill will toward anyone who found it offensive, she also noted that she posted it because it "spoke to the moment." There is no moment in which it is appropriate to traffic in bigoted imagery.

For the sake of the common good, we must not tolerate hate speech against any group in society, for history has shown that when it goes unchallenged it can become normalized. The senator's public comments on this matter have shown regrettably little understanding of the offense caused by her posting. It was wrong for an elected official to present such a violent image, especially when our city and nation are still reeling from recent acts of heinous gun violence.

It was wrong because it disrespected the contributions that religious communities of all faiths have made in creating a safe society and an environment of civil discourse to counter the dangerous polarization that has gripped our nation.

It was wrong because the image portrayed Catholics as "other" by indulging in an old anti-Catholic trope: Catholics are a threat to liberty because they aren't really American. It was not that long ago that Catholics were regularly insulted as "papists" and denied work simply for the faith they professed. The embrace of anti-Catholic tropes at this moment is just as objectionable as the embrace of caricatures of other faiths which have stained our national history and continue to do so today. An elected official should know better than to publish an image that could incite violence against a group of people on the basis of their religious belonging.

Obviously, since Senator Feigenholtz removed the offensive image soon after she posted it, she knows that she made a serious mistake. But our concern is that absent a more fulsome explanation and apology, other officials, and indeed their constituents, will learn a lesson no one should be taught: That it's acceptable for elected officials to engage in discourse that targets people through caricature on the basis of their identity, whether religious or otherwise. For surely none of us wants to live in an America where matters of public policy are "resolved" by bigoted memes instead of honest debate.

FELLOWSHIP AFTER WORSHIP

After more than a 2-year break due to Covid, St. Thomas Becket would like to begin our monthly gatherings once again. These gatherings are meant for parishioners to reacquaint and connect with people they may not have seen in a while and to make new friends. These times of fellowship are not meant to replace your morning meal or to get a free dessert to take home.

St. Thomas Becket can only do this, and be successful, if we have responsible teams of volunteers to set up, serve, and clean up after each Mass.

In other words, "Many hands make light work."

In the past, our gatherings (Hospitality) were after the 7:30am, 9am and 10:45am Masses. If there will be interested volunteers and responsible teams of parishioners for the 12:30pm and 4pm Masses,

St. Thomas Becket will gladly do the same for those Masses. If there is sufficient response for all Masses, we would like to start in September, and continue on second Sunday of each month.

In order to make this an enjoyable and fair event for everyone, the parish will supply the treats (doughnuts, danish, etc..) and coffee/tea for each Mass. Monetary free-will donations will be appreciated to help offset the costs. Interested in helping? Please use the space below to let us know and send back via collection basket or email Liz: emika@stbmp.org

UPDATE AS OF JULY 12: TALLY OF VOLUNTEERS: 7:30AM—4 ~ 9AM—4 ~ 10:45AM—2

NIEDZIELNE SPOTKANIA

Po ponad dwuletniej przerwie przez koronawirusa, parafia Św. Tomasza Becketa pragnie ponownie rozpocząć nasze comiesięczne spotkania. Cel tych spotkań to ponowne nawiązanie kontaktu z osobami, z którymi nie widzieliśmy się od dłuższego czasu, oraz aby zatrzymać nowe znajomości. Te spotkania nie mają na celu zastąpić porannego posiłku ani nie mają na celu zabrania do domu darmowego deseru.

Nasza parafia może to zrobić i odnieść sukces tylko pod warunkiem, że będą odpowiedzialne grupy wolontariuszy do przygotowania, nadzorowania i sprzątania po każdej Mszy Św.
Innymi słowy: "Wiele rąk - lekka praca".

W przeszłości nasze spotkania (Poczęstunki) odbywały się po Mszach Św. o godz. 7:30am, 9am i 10:45am. Jeśli znajdę się chętni wolontariusze na Msze Św. o godz. 12.30pm i w soboty o 4pm, chętnie również otworzymy. Jeśli będzie odpowiednie zainteresowanie na wszystkie Msze Św, rozpoczęmy spotkania po wakacjach we wrześniu, w drugą niedziele każdego miesiąca.

Aby spotkania było przyjemne dla wszystkich, parafia zapewni na każdą Mszę takie same smakołyki (pączki, bułeczki, itp.) oraz kawę/herbatę. W celu zrekompensowania kosztów będziemy wdzięczni za wolne datki. Osoby zainteresowane pomocą proszone są o wypełnienie poniższego formularza i zwrotu przez niedzielny koszyk lub email do Elżbiety: emika@stbmp.org

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We, the parish family of St. Thomas Becket, are a community of believers united in Christ, who dedicate ourselves to proclaim the Good News and foster a sense of belonging.

As we gather together in prayer and worship, we draw our nourishment from His word and the Bread of His Table.

With shared responsibility we go forth to serve and affirm our sisters and brothers.

Guided by the Holy Spirit, we strive to build the Kingdom of God within and beyond our parish.

My, Parafia Świętego Tomasza Becketa, jesteśmy wspólnotą wiernych zjednoczonych w Chrystusie, którzy troszczymy się o Boże dziedzictwo i z oddaniem głosimy Dobrą Nowinę. We wspólnym gromadzeniu się i modlitwie, karmimy się Jego Słowem i Chlebem z Jego Stołu. Z poczuciem wspólnego obowiązku podążamy w służbie naszym braciom i siostram. Pod przewodnictwem Ducha Świętego dążymy do budowania Królestwa Bożego wewnętrz i poza naszą parafią.
