HAPPY PENTECOST SUNDAY TO YOU!

Today is about the Holy Spirit! What images and thoughts may come to mind when you ponder Pentecost? A group of Jesus' followers huddled in a room? Images of a dove, fire or driving wind? The third person of the Trinity? All of these help us think about that which is mystery! Perhaps, however, the following reflection may bring new insights to your day.

We encounter God's Spirit in the very first verses in Genesis. "In the beginning,the Spirit of God hovered over the waters." (Gen 1:2) The Hebrew words ruach Elohim – literally mean wind, spirit, breath of God. From the very beginning, God's Spirit was with us here - hovering, moving, active - and a part of all of creation.

When Jesus was baptized by John, Matthew tells us "he came up from the water and behold, the heavens were opened, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and came upon him." (Matt 3:16-17) As Jesus was baptized, he was filled with the breath of God. The Spirit guided, shaped and enlivened his ministry.

In the first reading today, from the Acts of the Apostles, we find the Jews together for Pentecost – an annual festival celebrating the conclusion of the grain harvest. This time, the Spirit comes like a strong driving wind and tongues of fire. All were filled with the Spirit which enabled them to speak and proclaim. St. Paul says that the Spirit is given to everyone for the common good. In John's gospel, Jesus breathes and says, "Receive the Holy Spirit. As the Father sent me, so I send you."

All of us have been given the Spirit! How can you imagine the Spirit working in your life? Is it the breath which you take in? Filling your body, filling your entire being with God with every inhalation? Is it like a dove? Free to fly and move about – free to find new ways of living a holy life? Is it like tongues of fire? Giving us the courage to stand for injustice in our world – wherever and whenever we encounter it?

On this Pentecost Sunday, may God's Spirit enliven your life as it has from the very beginning – renewing the face of all the world.

Paula Kowalkowski –Music Director
